

June 2015 Stefano Alberti Bocconi

Interactive training sessions concentrate in the first 3 months of the program, conceived by the Bocconi Faculty midway between a lecture and a brainstorming session, with the purpose of helping new companies quickly grow and become organized.

Between tutoring, education and brainstorming

Objectives:

- help to grow and quickly get organized
- help to improve strategy, managerial and financial business ideas
- increase the survival possibility of ideas/companies through discussions and tangible proposals
- fine tune the business plan for better access to outside funding

Structure:

- ways of interacting: informal discussion on real cases, without neglecting theory
- first part, discussion of topics which are crucial for our enterprises
- second part, check-up of the potential behind the idea in terms of "theory" and work customized based on each single project

Method:

- professors ask participants to send an extract of their business plan 3 days beforehand, listing the questions they want a reply to
- participants work concretely in the classroom to improve their Business Plan in terms of the topics covered by professors
- per aiutarvi a migliorare i temi presentati e la vostra esposizione
